WORKING WITH US

Transaction Style	We pay particular attention to the transaction structure that best suits the needs of the sellers and company. Our transaction approach is very flexible.
Transaction Timeline	We will match pace with what best supports the sellers and company while allowing for appropriate diligence and documentation. We can close deals in a short timeframe from commencement.
Post-Close Involvement	Waldemar becomes the largest shareholder and CEO with a mandate to grow the business.
Post-Close Leadership	Day-to-day operations are entrusted to Waldemar. He is supported by a diverse group of private investors. Most of them are experienced entrepreneurs and managers who support Waldemar with their advice, industry knowledge and contacts on regular basis.
Reinvestment Approach	Since we are not short-term investors, reinvestment matters. We value both the financial health of the company and its long-term prospects and expect to invest accordingly.
Hold Period	Waldemar wants to continue his role in the acquired company for many years, also after satisfying initial capital partners.
